Subject: Docket No. 4981

Good afternoon:

The Commission is in receipt of the Petitioner's "Objection" filed on April 21. It is not entirely clear what the Petitioner is requesting from the Commission with this filing. No specific relief was requested. Nevertheless, the briefing schedule that was circulated on April 15 remains in effect and the Petitioner's initial brief is due on April 30.

To be clear, as indicated in the April 15 procedural schedule, a hearing will be scheduled after all the briefs are received, in order to hear oral arguments regarding the affidavit of new evidence filed by the Petitioner with the Supreme Court. After reviewing the briefs and holding this hearing, the Commission will consider the new evidence in the affidavit and determine whether any further hearings are necessary to appropriately respond to the Supreme Court's Order of March 24.

Best,
Patti
